

Amatris, Waiting...

Bound by endless sadness
Bound by grief and violence
Waiting for the end
Waiting for salvation

A shadow's standing above me
And a voice's whispering to me

Can you feel the breath of death?
Can you hear mankind screaming?
Can you taste the burning soil?
Can you see the ruins of this world

I'm closing my eyes
Want to forget these pictures
Yet they follow me
Escaping is impossible

I'm longing for this other world
Yet I'm doomed to live

My final journey, my final journey
I'm now ready to go this way
Time passes, time passes painfully
Still see completion, completion before my eyes
I hope my tears will dry, my tears will dry
Waiting for the end, waiting for salvation
I'm waiting, waiting for the end of this world
