

Amazing Transparent Man, Your Mother Lied

You whispered so softly
Then smiled at me from across the room
I'm shy and you're real scared
But we were talking soon

You opened your eyes so wide
I could see inside you had nothing to hide
But I turned away like there's nothing to say
And I regret that to this day

Now it's too late
Wish you were here
I guess I'll just close my eyes
And remember the time that I got to see your perfect smile
Wasting away,
You're so far away from me
I cannot see you
Fading away
I'd call you 1000 times
But I'm wasting away
Your friendship means more to me
Than you'll ever know
But you're walking away from me
Wasting away
I'm wasting away
