

Amber, Heavenly Proximity

Tomorrow I will pain the skies
Only in the colour of your eyes
On account of you, my love
It's feeling like a mystery
Always stars are falling over me
The sun explores my heart, the moon is dazzling

This heavenly proximity, it's thanks to you
A miracle has come along, goes through a proof
When you ???

I feel so strong
This heavenly proximity, my spirit's rising

When I talk to you and hear your voice
It's like the breezes whispering my name
You're right out to the might, your love, your nature
All the things are telling me
This is no illusion any more
You're so exceptional, you're my desire
