

Amber, I Found Myself In You

In my heart of hearts
Lived a lonely soul
Searching for someone
Who can make me whole?
Then I found you
I found you

Like an endless thirst
That makes a desert cry
Tears of joy
When I looked in your eyes
Had to find you
Had to find you

You heal me
You feel me
Like a stranger yet someone
I once knew
I found myself in you

You shield me
Reveal me
You're the other half of me
It's true
I found myself in you

The breath of life
That you breathed into me
Is a hunger craved?
For eternity
I am bound to you
I am bound to you

You heal me
You feel me
Like a stranger yet someone
I once knew
I found myself in you

You shield me
Reveal me
You're the other half of me
It's true
I found myself in you

You show me laughter
You show me life
It's heaven on earth
Here with you tonight
No longer lost now
I believe we found
Our sacred, sacred ground

You heal me
You feel me
I once knew
I found myself in you

You shield me
Reveal me
You're the other half of me
It's true
I found myself in you
