

Amber Mark, Most Men

You would give him all of your love and soul
Just for him to call and tell you he'll come over
Hard, the way you fall
Reckless with your heart

Oh, you would give him all
'Cause when he looks at you with lust
The way that he's looking, oh, it is enough
Girl, you're so reckless with your heart

Let me tell you, I seen't it
Oh, I seen't it
I've seen it all before
Know it all too well
That loneliness
You think that's all you get, baby

That's all you get

He be trifling, I saw him with another girl
And I'm telling you, honey, there are other men in this world
That'll give a bitch the love that she deserves
It is very rare but baby, it does exist
And when you find it, love
You'll realize it comes from within
And that's what gives a bitch the love that she deserves, baby

Girl, girl, you better cut that player out
Cut that player out of your life
Most men are garbage
Don't understand what love is
Girl, you better cut that player out
Throw that man right into the trash

Girl, girl, you better cut that player out
Cut that player out of your life
Most men are garbage
Don't understand what love is
Girl, you better cut that player out
Throw that man right into the past

Girl, you better cut that player out
Cut that player out of your life
Most men are trifling
Don't understand what wifing is
You better cut that player out, ooh
Cut that player out of your life

Listen to me, baby
Most men, yeah
