

Amber, You're Sent From Heaven

Right on time
Somebody past my way
And suddenly
There was that smile, baby

Like a sunset
You open up my eyes
So that everything was clear
And to my big surprise
I'm feeling so alive
I'm feeling so free
Something beautiful and escapable
Has happen to me

CHORUS:
You're sent from heaven
I know that you're from heaven, baby
/don't you know that you're from heaven/
You're sent from heaven
I know...
/I need you right now 24-7/
Oh...

Fantasies are going throught my mind
Unspoken words
That I'd love to say

You give me wings
And you make me fly /fly/
You touch my hand
And I can touch the sky /I can touch the sky/
I lost my faith
And you gave it back to me
But you can't leave now
'Cause I feel so right
When you look at me

CHORUS /2x/

You are the light in the dark
Everytime I am around you
You fill up my heart
Without you
I'm all alone
Holding up to nothing
But our love is strong
We are holding tight

/you're sent from heaven/
Ooh
Yeah yeah /4x/
/don't you know that you're from heaven/
You're sent from heaven
Oh, I can see it, I can see it
/don't you know that you're from heaven/
I can feel it
Ooh
I can see it in your eyes
See it in your smile
All the things you do /don't you know that you're from heaven/
If you only knew
I can see it in your eyes
See it in your smile
All the things you do

Oh heaven

/don't you know that you're from heaven/
