Ambrosia, Time Waits For No One

(Pack - Puerta - Drummond - North)

Hurry up, get along, be on your way And make sure that your certain It's not the wrong day Punctual people are lost in their plight To become unprecedented when they arrive

Why am I searching and when will I know? Are the years that I've waited with nothing to show? I'm ready to listen I'm ready to win But I can't wait much longer before we begin

Time waits for no-one No-one,No-one

There's time to conceive in and time to expire Though the time 'twixt the two tells the tale that transpires So why must we continually disturb the u With decisions and revisions which a minute will reverse

So people don't worry 'bout where you've gone wrong Cause you know if you hurry it takes twice as Relax and forget about what's to be done, it's time to have fun

Time waits for no-one Time waits for no-one It really doesn't matter much to me I know the best times are timeless, you'll see...