

Ambuscade Undeclinable, Lonely And Burning

Confused I awake on a sinking ship
There's no easy way, I'm learning it the hard way
Like some ridiculous child on an empty cruise
Only horizon ready to be swallowed

Loneliness eats me away
Digested to the bone I feel empty inside
The odds are against me, it's not ok, i'm not alright

Confused I awake in a burning house
It's no accident, they've put me here on purpose
The smoke is ready to put, put his hands on my throat
No need for help, I'm already burning

Loneliness eats me away
Digested to the bone I feel empty inside
The odds are against me, it's not ok, i'm not alright

Truth, I live in an empty world
With me to rely on, with me I can turn to Dare you to accompany me to the fields of heavens eternity?

Loneliness eats me away
Digested to the bone I feel empty inside
The odds are against me, it's not ok, i'm not alright

I'm already burning
