

America, Here And Now

Here and now, here and now
All the future will allow
Here and now, space in time
Turn the tables, toe the line
Toe the line, toe the line

Here and now,
Where people change their names
And play the waiting game
All in the name of fame
Here and now, we're ships upon the shore
We're free to run no more
It's time to lock the doors

Here I am, there you are
Miles between us far too far, far too far
It's far too far
In this life we've ridden through the rain
Flown across the plains
We're going down in flames
Comes a time with little more to say
It seems like yesterday
And now it's blown away

Shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala oooooooooo
Shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala oooooooooo
Shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala oooooooooo
Shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala oooooooooo
Shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala oooooooooo
Shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala, shalala oola shalala oooooooooo
