

American Authors, Say Amen (ft. Billy Raffoul)

What if we could talk Like it never happened?
Everything we lost
We could get it back and we could start from the top
Before we were hopeless

I'd be lying if I wasn't hoping
We could lie 'cause it's been quite a while Since I've seen your light
Since I've held you, my friend
I don't feel alright
If you were with me, I could say Amen

Amen, Amen
Amen, Amen
Amen

what if we could take everything we said back?
take me to the day the day before it went bad and we could start from the top
before we were hopeless

I'd be lying if I wasn't hoping
We could lie 'cause it's been quite a while
Since I've seen your light
Since I've held you, my friend
I don't feel alright
If you were with me, I could say Amen

Amen, Amen
Amen, Amen
Amen

even if I try my best to fix it leave me in the state that I'm in
what I wouldn't give just to see your light just to hold you, my friend
I don't feel alright
If you were with me, I could say Amen

Amen, Amen
Amen, Amen
Amen
