

American Classic, The Charlatan

It started with a shot to my throat from this glass on the table which is burning up my eyes Every round that goes down I feel confident and able to be someone else tonight I'm taking all i can with no fear of consequence
I'm changing who i am
So i feel no regret
I'm just trying to figure out who i am
I'm just trying swallow down the fear that i've tried to hide away
I'm just trying to figure out who i am
but tonight
I don't wanna make a difference
I just wanna be somebody different
I cant help but feel that i should stop and quit
I don't want to think of what it is I'm doing
I know i'll get away with everything I've done
As long as i forget where and who i was
I know i'll get away with every wasted night
As long as i let go
I'm just trying to figure out who i am
I'm just trying to swallow down the fear that i've tried to hide away
I'm just trying to figure out who i am
but tonight
I don't wanna make a difference
I just wanna be somebody different
We all know
What were doing here
We're trying
Just to change ourselves
I'm just trying to figure out who i am
I'm just trying to swallow down the fear that i've tried to hide away
I'm just trying to figure out who i am
but tonight
I don't wanna make a difference
I just wanna be somebody different
I just wanna figure out
Who I am (tried to hide away)
I just wanna figure out
Who I am
But tonight i don't wanna make a difference
I just wanna be somebody different
