

American Heartbreak, Too Beautiful

Born into a generation
Baby boomers masturbating
Killing everyone in sight
Close my eyes
Can't pretend this isn't happening
Beauty's just a time bomb

Color your hair and pierce your nose
Blacken your eyes, darken your soul
Is this our youth subculture

Welcome to the freakshow
Beauties always bought and sold
Acceptance equals complacency
Cover my eyes
Pretend this isn't happening
beauty's just a time bomb

Color your hair and pierce your nose
Blacken your eyes, darken your soul
Is this our youth subculture

Beautiful me, pitiful you
You look like hell to me
Beauty to me is ugly to you
I feel like shit today
(Repeat)

Down on the time
You're thinking you're beautiful
(Repeat)

(Repeat Chorus)
