

American Hi-Fi, Blue Day

i wanna get out when everything's alright can't you see i'm a wreck gonna crash and burn i wanna get out i've done my time if you fuck with me i might blow your mind yeah i'm not qualified to answer anyone if the world can wait then why can't i you're not justified in what you do or say empty heads in a line yeah you're on your way

[chorus:]
i'm not asking for much just get outta my way i'm in the eye of the storm beautiful blue day

[repeat 1st verse]

[repeat chorus 2x]

blue day [3x]
