

American Hi-Fi, My Soul To Lose

by the sound of your voice I can tell that you have no choice falling away
wish there was something I'd say to take it all back

[chorus:]
you shine on what ever you do the life from the last shooting stars fall down where ever you are only a proof
it's my soul to lose
this time

only a proof
it's my soul to lose

no don't make a sound
black shit of rain coming down washing away
leave me with nothing to say
to take it all back

[chorus]

only a proof
it's my soul to lose
this time

[chorus x2]

only a proof
it's my soul to lose
this time

only a proof
it's my soul to lose
this time
