

American Hi-Fi, Still Sideways

And you need me every time,
I'll wait it out for a while,
But someone get me outta here.
It's better now that I'm not around.

Maybe you can see
I'm still kinda sideways,
I'm wasting away,
And something's got me thinking...
It might be nothing,
But I'm wasting away.
Maybe I'm just tired...

Tomorrow never let's me see,
But I don't know who you are.
It's hard enough to feel this way.
I'm holding on but you move too slow.

Maybe you can see
I'm still kinda sideways,
I'm wasting away,
And something's got me thinking...
It might be nothing,
But I'm wasting away.
Maybe I'm just tired...

No one can get inside,
No way, no, not this time.
It's too late to get it right,
I'll try today.

And you need me every time,
I'll wait it out for a while,
But someone get me outta here.
It's better now that i'm not around.

Maybe you can see
I'm still kinda sideways,
I'm wasting away,
And something's got me thinking...
It might be nothing,
But I'm wasting away.

I'll never let you see,
Never let you see,
Never let you see...
Maybe you can see
I'm still kinda sideways,
I'm wasting away.
