

American Hi-Fi, Wall Of Sound

it don't mean nothing when you say it's gonna be alright cause you'll tell me anything i wanna hear and it don't mean nothing when you laugh at my jokes cause it's all or nothing when i fall apart fade, fade, fade
into you

you're under my skin now i could shut out the world that we know i'll try to be everything you want me to be and i've gotta head start but i'm making the same mistakes
fade, fade, fade

[chorus:]
caught in the rush of the crowd lost in a wall of sound
you were ringing in my ear

my ear

fade, fade, fade, fade

[repeat chorus]
