

American Idol, She's All That

Well that the age of sixteen
When hormones are buddin'
Everybody was a dating,
But I was savin' my lovin'
For the object of my teenage fantasy

Well the lack of nerve made me hasitate
But I finally asked her for a date
From there all out the rest was history

She's got the walk and the talk
She could shake that booty
She's a real looker and a bonified beauty
The others might sparkle but she's really got the shine
She's got skills to men but that don't matter
They may look buy they can't have her
She's all that--And that's all mine
