

American Minor, All My Time

I had every reason
I should've held back
But I had to believe that something
Was better than nothing at all
She said, "You've been leaving
Seems like every time I turn around
You've been chasing something
I just can't take it no more"
All my time
And money will be gone
Out of reach
But I'll be coming home
Hey, where are you gonna run to?
Who are you gonna run to?
Are you gonna run to me? Oh
Hey, where are you gonna run to?
Who are you gonna run to?
Are you gonna turn your back on me?
Baby it's plain to see
A little hard to believe
I can't give what I'm receiving away
Don't come down on me
Sleepless nights on the wire
Seems like every time you're not around
I'm burning down
Won't you save a place for me on down the line?
All my time
And money will be gone
Out of reach
But I'll be coming home
Hey, where are you gonna run to?
Who are you gonna run to?
Are you gonna run to me? Oh
Hey, where are you gonna run to?
Who are you gonna run to?
Are you gonna turn your back on me?
Baby you know we came a long long way
When they'd refuse you, you could fall in my arms and sway
Together we departed but now we drift away
We can't finish what we started, yeah
Finish what we started, yeah
Finish what we started, yeah
Hey, where are you gonna run to?
Who are you gonna run to?
Are you gonna run to me? Oh
Hey, where are you gonna run to?
Who are you gonna run to?
Are you gonna turn your back on me?
