

American Minor, Don't Jump The Gun

Gonna kill a man, momma
Pistol in my hand, momma
Devil in my blood, swimming
Stroking my pain away
Saw him after school, momma
Made me for a fool, momma
Devil in my blood, swimming
Stroking my pain away
Momma said, "Son, son, don't jump the gun
The pain came on fast, it ain't never gonna last"
Momma said, "Son, son, you ain't the only one
The tables will turn, but you can't turn them like that"
Gonna take that pain, momma
Blow it in his brains, momma
Devil in my blood, grinning
That boy will rue the day
Saw him after school, momma
Made me for a fool, momma
Devil in my blood, grinning
That boy will rue the day
Momma said, "Son, son, don't jump the gun
The pain came on fast, it ain't never gonna last"
Momma said, "Son, son, you ain't the only one
The tables will turn, but you can't turn them like that"
A pistol in my hand
I'm gonna make them understand
