

American Minor, Sleepwalking

As we get older, don't you know
That this life it gets colder, yeah
If you can hold on, just a little longer
If you can hold on, just a little stronger
You'll see me out walking at night
Under your door
I'll shine my light, I'll see you in dreams
Sleepwalking, sleepwalking, sleepwalking, yeah
If you can find patience, don't you know
Just a sliver of hope, yeah
If you can hold on, just a little longer
If you can hold on, just a little stronger
You'll see me wandering in the moonlight
I'll still be your man, reaching for your hand
I'll see you in dreams
Sleepwalking, sleepwalking, sleepwalking, yeah
If you can hold on
Don't you know that this life it gets colder
If you can hold on
If you can hold on
I know you'll see me out walking at night
I'll still be your man, reaching for your hand
I'll see you in dreams
Sleepwalking, sleepwalking, sleepwalking
If you can hold on
