

American Pearl, Believe

I believe the sun will rise one day
And we'll waken to a bright and new tomorrow
I can feel the pain that cuts so deep
All the faith inside won't take away the sorrow
And we'll be stronger than before, cause they can't bleed us anymore
I believe in the heroes lost and gone
And all the challenges we face we shall not fail
Side by side with hope and pride we stand
And when that new day comes I know we will prevail
And we'll be stronger than before, cause they can't bleed us anymore
I believe in the great American dream
Of a rising star, and a celebration of freedom
I believe that we shall overcome with an independence day for every season
And we'll be stronger than before, cause they can't bleed us anymore
