

American Pearl, Revelation can't you feel it risin' through you so alive now closin' in I'm your deviant I'm your hero from this dog's life can't seem to win but I want it all I got my eyes on your salvation and I want it all comin' alive with a new revelation that I want it all long time gone now since you've been able to find your way home through the dark underrated super-jaded can't decide now whose side you're on I want it all

I wanna know if you got your mind on a revolution of the soul 'cause I got my eyes on your salvation
and I want it all
that I want it all
