

American Steel, Landmine Lullabye

Landmine fuck i'm out of time how was i to know you were gonna blow? hey gray cloud, lay off for now enough bad luck my skies are clearing up you'll just sit and watch cuz you're so detached all is not lost once you start fighting back nothings relevant you're indifferent and you'll feel no pain if you stay the same you'll always be right if no one says you're wrong
