

Amerie, Dear John

Dear John
Right now u r probably wondering
Where I am who Im with and why u r reading this
But before I go into..
What Im up to let me confess
Dear sweetheart
I know about u r secret
Where you've been who you with i saw you ... with her
And yet you always try to amazing
How i got a god thing and i cant do better
Do you remember what you told me?
Cause i remember it well (how could I forget?)
Do u remember how u said no one could fool me
And i said time will tell
Thats why Im so sorry
That I couldn't be there
To see the look up on your face
And im so sorry that it took me so long
So long to put you an your place to hell
Im writin u this letter
Just to let u know that
That i still love you
But i wont be comin back
U had me at hello
Now i gotta say goodbye
Cause one too many times u made me cry
Dear John
Im hopin that this find you well..
Dear John
But you put me through a living hell
Dear John
You left me with nothin to do
Dear John
Dear John
Im leaving u
Im leaving u
Dear John
Right now ur probably see my clothes are gone
are gone and i aint lovin
So don't even bother
To call my number
Cause i got it changed
Why jJohn
Couldn't just see
I gave my heart gave my time
And i got nothin
So it shouldn't be surprising
This letter Im writing
That you there by yourself
Do you remember what you told me?
Cause I remember it well (how could I forget?)
Do u remember how u said no one would fool me
And I said time will tell
To see the look up on your face
And Im so sorry that it took me so long
So long to put you an your place to hell
Im writing u this letter
Just to let u know that
That I still love you
But I wont be coming back
U had me at hello
Now I gone say goodbye

Cause one too many times u made me cry
Dear John
Im hoping that this find you well

And now Im so much wiser
Cause the pain that you gave me
Never ever put me down
