

Amila Zazu, Never again

we will never be the ones we used to be before we will never go to places we once so much loved we will never do the things we did so long ago whats unsaid remains unsaid, we will say nothing more we will never laugh at things that always made us smile we have changed now so your pleasure is no longer mine we wont go back to the moments that we used to share there is no point in crying, better hear me when I say

REFREN:

carry on with living life
and realize it baby
carry on and keep in mind Im still by your side

in your eyes Ill never be the treasure of the world
we will never do the things we did so long ago you wont say what shouldve said cause we have closed the door
we will never laugh at things that always made us smile we are different so your pleasure stands for my dislike
but do remember when I say: for you Im always there

REFREN:

and realize it baby
Im still by your side
I wanna thank you for that time I wont forget what Ive got from you you know on me you can rely you must remember Ill be always by your side

REFREN:

and realize it baby
