

Amity Dry, Start Of Something Good

Day like any other day
There's something in the air
Nothing's really changed
But it feels like I'm finally getting somewhere

And it's all here before me
The future is in sight, hey yeah
And i'm going to make it mine

Today is going to be a good day
Feels like everything's right
And nothing's hard to do
And I'm going to make it my way
And i'm going to take my time
It feels like it's the start of something new nah,nah,nah,nah,nah

Now i've just got this feeling
Of good things on the way
A moment full of promise
In every breath I take

And it's all here before me
The future is in sight, hey yeah
And i'm going to make it mine

Chorus

Storm clouds are over
And it's shining down on me with possibility
And I am going to take hold of everything I seek Cause I do believe, yes I do believe, you know I do believe

Chorus
