

Amity Dry, Wait Another Day

I've always been kind of brave
Never one to watch what I say
And people think my heads in the clouds
But I believe in dreaming out loud
'Cause all my life I have wanted more
The chance to prove what I know I'm here for
So I can't wait another day
I'm going to pack my bags and find my way
And I know I'll see it through
'Cause it's all I've ever wanted to do
I've always seen it so clearly
Always known where I'm meant to be
I know my life has a purpose
And there are great things waiting for me
'Cause all my life I have wanted more
The chance to prove what I know I'm here for
So I can't wait another day
I'm going to pack my bags and find my way
And I know I'll see it through
'Cause it's all I've ever wanted to do
And I know it won't be easy
But nothing is for free
And if I just keep believing
I will find my dream
So I can't wait another day
I'm going to pack my bags and find my way
And I know I'll see it through
'Cause it's all I've ever wanted to do
