(Corruption of the mind killing and destruction
Victimised by mental chain reaction)
Lust and greed wrath and pride

Step inside in the real world and find
The good force within you before it's time

Discover the cold-blooded corrupted perverted fiend
Of every single man (Damn) You will never understand
Insanity in the realms of the damned

Come and meet my master in the damn palace
The devil himself with the evil in his eyes
Come to claim your soul and hear your dying cries

*FLIPSIDE*

As I sent terror visions straight from my division
Expressin' cynical views with words of my aggression
I forgot to mention you'll be dead in 5 seconds
I'm the evil in all men with you soul in my hands
Come dance with the devil in the pale moonlight
I'll take over your whole world straight without a fight
Fell my might as you take a step into my fortress
I create stress in your mind as I do this

*YOGI B*

Twin darkness flipsided unabided
Conscious mortals don't fight it
Uninvited strangers in the chamber of thought
Warlocks and witches psychological onslaught
Don't take off your armour
Or become one will you in my drama

Mistake me do not for the dark entity y'all
Killer of killer slain devils with the righteous claw
Like young Jedi knights who succumb to the Empire
Embrace the good force fight fire with fire
But persist if you must in your merciless ways
Then I welcome you to my.... terror domain
