

Amon Din, King Of Din-Amon

Life-something supreme the energy of the whole universe Inexplicable perfection of his creation knowledge-purpose of existence
The beauty of the beauty of his creation death-logical continuation of the previous
He keeps still and is always on the go
Changes not himself but is a cause of all changes
His eternal, present everywhere
He is the father of all, the mother of everything
Love-love the source of life
Strength, which his power breaths with Death he presents his subjects
Truth-purity of soul, light stronger than the Sun's
His ultimate weapon
Goodness-the greatness of man
Do experience it
He's the father of all, the mother of everything
He is the origin and purpose of enlightenment
The crator of kingdom supreme
He is the king of Din-Amon
In this time of darkness and misery
When everything perverses, when Yes becomes No
We have to find the strength for us all
And join around shining wise head
Though I know not of his place
Though I know not of his face
To his will I let myself
And believe to the Holy Head!
Your serene highness, you have mine loyalties!
