

Among Wolves, Just In Case

I see your eyes so blue i'm lyin right in front of you things just seems so right in the heat of a summer night standin on 8th avenue just enjoyin myself a view their horns are not serene not like the noise on a tv screen in a fiery tone of voice you really gave me no choice some green and a couple of blues like the color of your shiney shoes 5 dollars and 38 cents i'm goin to see the president i gotcha some clean clothes just in case somebody knows
