

Amorphis, Far From The Sun

Nothing is more than too much I'm waiting for the tarnishing touch you wish for the last kiss goodbye like the child that cannot lie

I walk
away now from you
and your sun
it goes down from you
as I walk
and from
from your sun

holding the wounds of the bleeding souls you summon all the restless folk to share the feast of anxiety like the spawn that cannot breed

away now from you
and your sun
as I walk
and from
from your sun
