Amortis
Miscellaneous
The Arrival of a New Age

Im falling deep in Sphere beyond
In bloodred Nights I make my Way

I am fading away from this Life
Alone Im standing, God has lied to me

My Soul is not sleeping, Im finding no Peace
I will rise against you all and your Fear is my Pride

Alone I stand beneath the Gates, to destroy Heaven to destroy the Light
As the Fire burns around me and I laugh as the Angels die
Now their Wings have turned to Ash and my Eyes are burning bright

Im full of Hate, Im full of Blood
I slay the Christians and enslave their Souls

Now I - I know who I am
Im the chosen one from Hell
I have slaughtered the holy ones

I am the Rebirth of the Night, Im the chosen one from Hell
Im the one who controls your Fear, mightier than Death
And noone knows my Name, cause I live behind the Light
