

Ampop, Rodent

Like a rodent
I work all nights
I wake up when everyone is asleep
I use the silence to concentrate
What I do?
I'm not able to tell you

No matter what
No one will know
What I am up to

I love risk
I feed on the oxygen
Like a fish
I sleep with my eyes open
What I do?
Will one day run up to you

No matter what
No one will know
What I am up to

Maybe one day you'll be delayed cause your phone has a bomb in it
But when it does it wont be seen
It's just a consequence of a human being

Who is mean
Who is me

No matter what
No one will know
that I'm after you
