

Amr Diab, TRANSLATION Allem Alby (Teach Love To My Heart)

My love, when you are beside me, what can I wish and dream for?
The dream has come true and my eyes saw it
Come near to me to feel comfort
I have been calling for you from a long time, come and hug me

Teach my heart how to love (allem alby el gharam)
Talk to me with the sweetest words
Live with me in my dreams
Love me, my love

Believe me when you are loving me and willing to see me
You teach the lovers not to leave each other
My love, you are an angel
I forget the world with you
And I come to your world of love
Just when you hug me

My love, all of me is yours
I love you when I'm with you
Nothing in this world is rich for me to get it to you
If only you hug me
