

Amy Diamond, Yellow Shirt

Call me closer, really closer
Don't be a false sign
You're so gorgeous, really gorgeous
And I have no doubt
I'm wondering by now
Why I feel upside down

The yellow shirt, it's inside us
It's wanting us, to stay in touch
She look at you, as you walk past
You're beautiful, behind your mask

Cause I met you at the market
Taking the same book
My hands touched yours on
The yellow cover
My heart that day you took
I thought you were so cool

The yellow shirt, it's inside us
It's wanting us, to stay in touch
She look at you, as you walk past
You're beautiful, behind your mask

(Yeah heey)
(Hah, aaahhh)

Call me closer, really closer
Don't be a false sign
You're so gorgeous, really gorgeous
And I have no doubt

The yellow shirt, it's inside us
It's wanting us, to stay in touch
She look at you, as you walk past
You're beautiful, behind your mask

(The yellow shirt, it's inside us)
It's wanting us, to stay in touch
She look at you, as you walk past
You're beautiful, behind your mask

(Oooh, oohhh)
