

Amy Grant, Walking Away With You

(Gary Chapman, Amy Grant, Chris Christian)

He calls me to the darkness
He tries to put some hardness in my heart pulling us apart
He tells me that he needs me
But lies are all he feeds into my life day and night

[Chorus 1:]

When I'm losing my sense of direction
And I'm needing some strength and protection
Walking away with You
I go walking away with You
And when I think I can't stand any longer
And I'm crying for someone that's stronger
Walking away with You
I go walking away with You
There's nothing he can do
His threat to me is through
When I go walking away with You

Lonely overtakes me
Everyone forsakes me, friends are gone, pain is on

Walls around my feelings
Emptiness concealing all my views
All but You

[Chorus 2:]

When I'm needing someone to console me
Nearly dying for someone to hold me
I'm walking away with You
I go walking away with You
And when I'm faced with a tricky temptation
I abandon the whole situation
Walking away with You
I go walking away with You
Oh what a fail safe plan
Just staying hand in hand
I'll keep on walking away with You

I don't notice if no one's around me
When I see that Your loving has found me taken by surprise
Like sunlight in a clouded sky
Then I'm dancing as light as a feather
Au revoir to the stormy weather
Walking from the night
To a never ending light

[Chorus 1]

[Chorus 2]
