

Amy Grant, Where Do You Hide Your Heart

(Amy Grant & Michael W. Smith)

I call you on the phone
But you're not at home
Where do you go when you're hurting
Hear you're down again
Lost the will to win
Why do you run when you're hurting
Why do you hide your heart
Where do you hide your heart

Leave the hurt behind you
Love has found you now
And He'll never let you go
Oh you've got to know
That Jesus will not leave us now
So leave your cares behind
Oh leave your cares behind

When you're feeling low
Let me let you know
That we're all sad sometimes
Jesus carries you
He's gonna see you through
He'll never leave cause he loves you
Oh where do you hide your heart
Tell me where do you hide your heart

Leave the hurt behind you
Love has found you now
And He'll never let you go
Oh you've got to know
That Jesus will not leave us now
He'll never let you go
He'll never let you go

Where do you hide your heart
Where do you hide your heart

Leave the hurt behind you
Love has found you now
Oh you've got to know
That Jesus will not leave us now
He'll never let you go
He'll never let you go
