

Amy Lee, Speak To Me

Be still , my love
I will return to you
However far you feel from me
You're not alone

I will always be waiting
And I'll always be watching you
Speak to me /3x

I can't let go
You're every part of me
The space between is just a dream
You will never be alone

I will always be waiting
And I'll always be watching you

We are one breath, apart, my love
And I'll be holding it in till we're together
Hear me call you name
Just speak
Speat to me /3x

I feel you rushing all through me
I these walls I still hear you heartbeat
And nothing in this world can hold me back
From breaking through to you

We are one breath, apart, my love
And I'll be holding it in till we're together
Hear me call you name
Just speak
Speat to me /3x

Be still , my love
I will return to you
