

Amy Pearson, Wish I Was Her

Always knew that when we said goodbye,
It wouldn't last forever,
Always thought that I'd run into you,
And we'd get back together...
Now you're here just like I imagined,
But never once did it cross my mind that you could move on...
You've found someone,
It breaks my heart,
Cos you're so in love...

[Chorus]:

I wish that my touch made you smile just like that,
And I wish that I had you the way that she has.
Cos I still remember the love I left behind,
Oh I wish I was her and you were mine.
I think somebody's tryna talk to me,
But I can't hear a word they're sayin',
All I can do is stare at you,
I don't even know why I'm stayin'.
Never thought I'd cry to see you happy,
Its just I thought that your happiness was right here with me.
I know we're through,
Its no use,
Still I can't help but feel...

[Chorus]:

I wish that my touch made you smile just like that,
And I wish that I had you the way that she has.
Cos I still remember the love I left behind,
Oh I wish I was her and you were mine.
The way that you hold her I wish that was me,
There's no place on earth that I'd rather be.
Cos I still remember the love I left behind,
Oh I wish I was her and you were mine.

Bridge

I used to be right beside you.
Now I'm not even kept inside your heart.
I put our love up on a shelf,
But now its gone cos you belong to someone else...

[Chorus]:

I wish that my touch made you smile just like that,
And I wish that I had you the way that she has.
Cos I still remember the love I left behind,
Oh I wish I was her and you were mine.
The way that you hold her I wish that was me,
There's no place on earth that I'd rather be.
Cos I still remember the love I left behind,
Oh I wish I was her and you were mine.
