

Amy Ray, Late Bloom

Words and music BY Amy Ray

I won't be a pawn
We roughed it up when we were young
I won't say so much for that
What do you do when it is done
Cause I know
We grow
When it's over

I used to dream
All the force of solvent green
Lazy geese and the weather warm
Oh my life of humidity
But I know
We grow
(I know we grow)
When it's over

All that time
I spent walking behind
Now I don't mind
Cause now I know

They ran us out of town
Oh come on they cut us down
Raised the flag of the fealty
Oh the life of futility
But I know
We grow
(I know we grow)
When it's over

All that time
That you were walking the line
Well
Now I don't mind
Now I know

All that time
That I spent walking behind you
Now I don't mind
Cause now I know

We grow
When it's over
