

Amy Shark, Beautiful Eyes

If you spend enough time with someone
Chances are you probably gonna fall in love
Maybe it's the way they pick your brain
Maybe you're bored and you need to change
Don't hold back when your legs start moving
Try to react don't think just do and darling
Don't let the days go by
Open your beautiful eyes
Yeah

I remember when I was 17
Amy why you always gotta disagree
My mother was a baby with a baby like me
My boyfriend at the time wasn't nice to me
Don't hold back when your legs start moving
Try to react don't think just do and darling
Don't let the days go by
Open your beautiful eyes
Yeah

Don't lie down when your head starts spinning
Write it down and the pain starts healing
Don't let the days go by
I won't I'll miss you
Don't hold back when your legs start moving
Try react don't think just do and darling
Don't let the days go by
Open your beautiful eyes
Don't hold back when your legs start moving
Try react don't think just do it
Don't let the days go by
Open your beautiful eyes
Open your beautiful eyes
Open your beautiful eyes
Yeah
