

Amy Sky, I Believe In Us

lyrics I believe in us, by Amy Sky

I believe in hope
I believe in dreams
After all these years these sweet and bitter tears, do you believe in me I believe in time and I believe in trust so darling don't let go cuz baby all I know is I believe in us

All the things you talk to me or all the thing that love should be and I bless the day that you came to me I know sometimes we lose our way and we say things we don't mean to say you hold my heart within your hand I believe that life is full of twist and turns and baby all this pain is just like summer rain its the only way we learn and I believe that pain will lead us back to love
so darling don't let go cuz baby all I know is I believe in us

Heaven knows where reckless angels go we fall so low thats what it is to walk that far holding * forever more Do you believe in heaven, cuz the best is yet to come and we have come to far to let it fall apart Baby don't give up, darling don't let go cuz baby all I know is I believe in us

I believe in us
I believe in you, I believe in me I believe that we were meant to be
