</lyrics>

I'll show you and make it bloom The unfulfilled flower of love
With you the cathode ray tube Playing house in our dreams

I'm writing a letter With a reply letter and stamp inside
With my cell number and mail address The answer isn't coming

congratulations fever
congratulations fever
congratulations fever

This feeling that won't reach you, is swirling in the sky
If just the feeling reaches you because I'll feel happy

The cell phone rings rururururu Its a call from her
With my heart seeming about to stop I get out my courage and answer the phone
"I'll meet you right now" I make some kind of promise
When I realize it I'm in my own bed

Congratulations fever
Congratulations fever
Congratulations fever

This feeling that won't reach you, is swirling in the sky
If just the feeling reaches you because I'll feel happy

one-shot reversal love game

I said that one day for sure this feeling will reach her
I believe it and still repeat this game (love) won't end
