<lyrics>

Turn to the right Nobody to relate to, loneliness sets in Turn to the left Everybody but me in animated conversation
Want to run away From this room that fills me with emptiness
What am I laughing about? What am I feeling? What is it that brings me here?

Live in solitude

Nobody to depend on since I chose solitude for myself
Made excuses, tried to act cool and tried to soothe myself
Too much pride but can't do anything, that's me
Left behind, squashed and screaming

Always swallowed how I really felt, hid away in a corner of my heart
Not knowing how to show my true self, I'd been waiting for a helping hand

Live in solitude

Been searching for the light in pitch darkness
Unsuccessfully waiting for an answer I was freezing
But surely I'd stand straight again if I were needed
Breaking away from that searing pain, I always ran out of fear

Live in solitude

Been searching for the light in pitch darkness
Unsuccessfully waiting for an answer I was freezing
But surely I'd stand straight again if I were needed
Breaking away from that searing pain, I always ran out of fear
A ray of light, my hope Give me warmth
