

An Pierl, Exit

Watching the entire night Pictures of you I once took in my mind, was it alright?
Broke the rules by telling you
I liked you too much.
You didn't wanna see me
Watching you at your best
As you thought you were perfectly
Answering my questioning
The perfect man
Tonight, I'm gonna make millions out of light
I'm gonna pretend I am alright.
Eating the entire night
Raw fish trained 4 years to kiss my lips as the main dish Broke the rules by asking you what I'd to do next.
And I never thought you'd had Such a small small face
Though you always taught integrity
I find but disgrace
As you thought you were perfectly
Answering my questioning
The perfect man
Tonight, I'm gonna be questioning your rights
I'm gonna be strong enough to fight
The wrong reasons why you wanna be in love with me
Tonight I'm gonna make millions out of light
I'm gonna pretend I am alright
