

Ana Johnsson, L.A

All the roads lead to L.A.
The place to meet Jesus
And make friends with Mary-Jane
If you've got music on your brain
Well here's the right place
To get into a game
Cause we all want the same
Yeah we all want the star with your name
All the roads lead to L.A.
You worshippers of sunshine
You seizers of the day
If you've got something to say
Here's room for everyone
Black, white, straight or gay
Cause we all want the same
Yeah we all want the star with your name
Yeah all the roads lead to L.A.
Let's drive into the desert
And dance the night away
Do you remember how to play?
Wake up the kid inside you
And catch the next wave
Cause we all want the same
Yeah we all want the star with your name
Welcome to L.A. La-la-la...
