

Ana Laura, Completely

The secret of life is letting go
The secret of love is letting it show
In all that I do, in all that I say
Right here in this moment
The power of prayer is in a humble cry
The power of change is in giving my life
I'm laying it down, down at Your feet
Take my heart, take my soul
I surrender everything to Your control
And let all that is within me, lift up to You and say
I am Yours and Yours alone, completely
This journey of life is a search for truth
This journey of faith is following You
Every step of the way, through the joy and the pain
Take my heart, take my soul
I surrender everything to Your control
And let all that is within me, lift up to You and say
I am Yours and Yours alone, completely
Right here, right now and for the rest of my life
Hear me say
Take my heart, take my soul
I surrender everything to Your control
And let all that is within me, lift up to You and say
I am Yours and Yours alone, completely
I am Yours and Yours alone, completely
