

Anah Aevia, Sea And Sky

The sky fades away, it all began as smiles and laughter.

You fade away into my arms.

The sky fades away, it all begins as smiles and laughter.

You fade away into my arms.

Love lost, the weapon still in my hands.

The agony begins, lost, lost, the weapon still in my hands.

The agony begins.

You fade away.

The agony is over, the agony begins.
