Anasarca, Signs Of Life

(based on " Signs of Life" by Robert Atworth)

Eyes on the noose- signs of abuse Cries for help- noone comes Look to the skies- see only lies Abandoned soul growing numb

I suffer:: Therefore I am

Try to hold back the flood Nailed to a cross in the crack At the base of the dam How do I know I'm in love?

There's always been only one Set of footprints in the sand How do I know I'm alive? How do I know I'm alone?

Generations of blood on the walls Nothin' changes but the price Still they ban all they can This ain't nothin' nice

Demonic urge- storm waters surge Buzz getting louder- trail of powder

I suffer:: Therefore I am
