Anastacia, I Ask Of You

Whooo

Your love is like a gentle breeze upon a brand-new day Your touch and what it does to me - like a flower needs its rain We are like one of a kind, true love is hard to find I can't go on another day Just hear me when I say

I ask of you, would you love me, if nothing else went right? And I ask of you, would you hold me, forever in your life? And don't let me fall, 'cause I can only give my all Here I am I ask of you

I found the place where I belong, it's right here next to you And nothing else matters now, with all we've been through I can't go on, tryin' to deny just what I feel inside But now before I let go, you gotta let me know

I ask of you, would you love me, if nothing else went right? I ask of you, would you hold me, forever in your life? Don't let me fall, 'cause I can only give my all Here I am I ask of you Yes I do I ask of you Whoa

I never really thought (I never really thought) That you'd be all to me (That you'd be all that really matters to me) I'd give everything and all I am to you Oh baby, baby, I know you feel this way too

I ask of you, would you love me, if nothing else went right? And I ask of you, would you hold me, forever in your life? And don't let me fall, 'cause I can only give my all Here I am I ask of you
